

National Fire Academy Direct Delivery Program

Command & Control of Wildland Urban Interface Fire operations for the Structural Chief Officers CCWUIFOSCO 603

Free Training course

Objective: Provides the basic information to enable an officer in charge of multiple units to provide for safe and effective operations at a wildland/urban interface incident.

Description: Designed to provide students with the essential tools and skills to operate safely in a wildland/urban interface incident. Course content covers interface incidents, fire behavior, safety, and operational considerations.

This is a Train—the—Trainer course

Course date:

August 15 & 16, 2009

Class time:

9:00 am to 5:00 pm both days

Location

Mari Hulman George Search and Rescue Center

located at Camp Atterbury
Edinburgh, IN

To register for this course you must fill out a FEMA 75.5a application and submit it to:

Steve Walters, NFA Program Manager
Indiana Department of Homeland Security
302 W. Washington St. Room 208
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Or

Fax to: 317-234-4009

For more information, contact Steve at 317-232-2447 or swalters@dhs.in.gov

Registration deadline is July 24, 2009

Instructor fees and course materials funded through the NFA Direct Delivery Program.

Sponsored by
Indiana Firefighter Training System
Indiana Department of Homeland Security

